The vote given Pomerene and Cox

in the Presidential Primary will be significant.

Governor Willis will go down in history as one of Ohio's greatest business governors.

The Highway Department is paying to sell nearly a hundred miles of country roads.

The name of Governor Willis will be printed last on the Presidential primary ballot. Look for it there.

The last administration put enough

fake valuations on the tax duplicate

to entomb the Warnes law forever.

State Treasurer Archer has already made the enviable record as being the best state treasurer Ohio has ever had.

Bucket shops and Loan Sharks know something about the efficiency of the Ohio Banking Department under the present administration.

For the first time in its history the Boiler Department of the Industrial

Commission is being placed on a paying basis by Chief Inspector J. C. Cal-

lery.

The Cox-Finley press bureau says

the Republican Big Four candidates are the result of a "plate." Well, who named Cox, Campbell, Pomerene and Harmon?

The final saving of the Ohio Panama Exposition Commission amounts to $42,557.00. The appropriation of $174,089.00 was made under Harmon,

Cox and Willis. More was turned back under the Willis administration

than was appropriated by it.

When Andrew L. Harris was governor, it cost $9,000,000 a year to run the government of the state. Under the administrations of Harmon and

Cox, the cost made up a sum to $20,

000,000 per annum. Is it any wonder that the Democratic machine is trying to reduce the Willis policy of cutting down state expenses, in an effort to bring back the old Cox money-sewing machine.

VALENTINE THEATRE.

Two musical attractions of national reputation though widely different in their makeup, are booked for immediate presentation at the Valentine Theatre, Toledo. They are "Maid in America" and "Nobody Home."

"Maid in America" is the fourth and largest of the great Winter Garden attractions to visit Toledo. It plays the Valentine Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week, with Saturday matinee. Like its predecessors, "Dancing Around," "Assassins Show of 1915" and "World of Pleasure" it is gorgeously mounted and is in the hands of a huge company. The production is in two acts and twelve scenes. It carries 125 people, including a chorus of over three score of young women. It has its own orchestra and travels by two special Pullman trains. The Winter Garden runway, extending over the heads of the audience, is employed to establish more intimate relations between players and audience.

Two ballet features have been staged in the production by Theodore Kosloff, director of the czar's own Imperial theatre, in Petrograd. They are the "Ballet Russe" and "Ballet of Color and Motion." Thirty songs, numbers and many dance and vaudeville specialties are introduced.

Nobody Home

On Tuesday, April 4, matinee and night, the Valentine will offer the latest light operatic success, "Nobody Home," with Fervical Kint in the stellar role he created during the long run of the piece had at the Princess Theatre, New York. A company of 60 people and some of the most brilliant costuming and scenery seen in recent years are promised. Jerome Kern wrote the music.

"Nobody Home" tells the story of a "silly and Englishman who, underneath the surface, is very much of a real man. He comes to New York to visit his brother, a famous society dandy. There he meets a certain independent young light opera prima donna and things begin to happen. The plot places along but the show is wholesomely clean throughout. It promises exceedingly well as an entertainment. It visits Toledo after a tour of the larger cities, and is making its way back to Boston for a second run.

THE DOCTRINE OF CHANCE.

He—"Was your father angry when you told him of our engagement?" She—"Not particularly. He said he had been rather fortunate in the stock market of late, and figured it was about time for his luck to turn."

THE TINKERER.

"He's always tinkering with the engine of his car." "Yes. Even when it's running all right he wants to take it apart to see what isn't the matter with it."

DAILY THOUGHT.

Gentle words, quiet words, are, after all, the most powerful words. They are more convincing, more compelling, more prevailing.—W. Gladstone.

ILLUSTRATION.

"There are great contradictions in life." "Such as what, in particular?" "Why, a man who advocates a dry policy must favor the water wagon."

HAD TAKEN SOME TIME.

Edith—"Miss Oldgirl says she has just reached the marriageable age." Marie—"You don't say. I wonder what delayed her."—Boston Transcript.
